

Welcome to slideZing

Present - Text - Engage

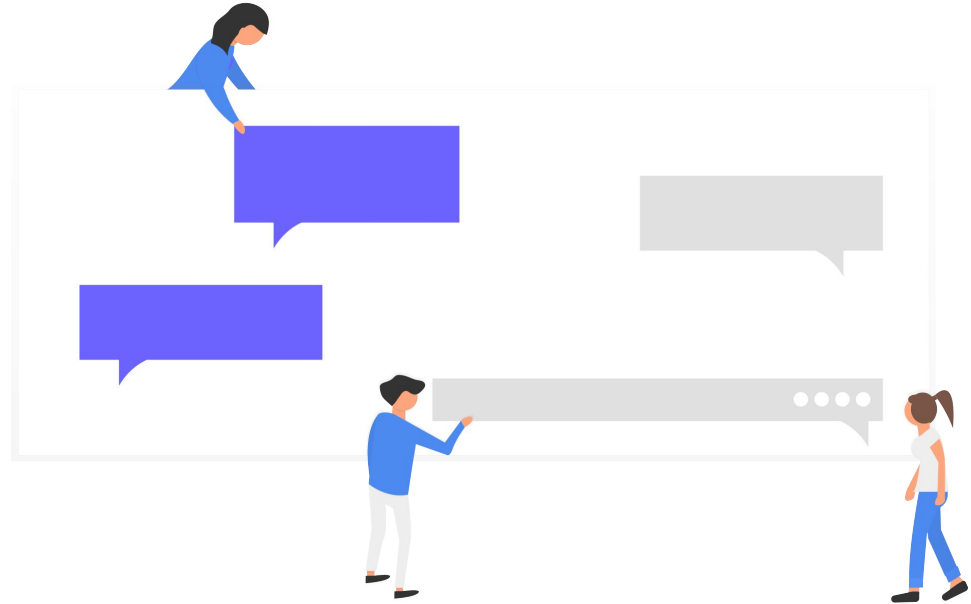

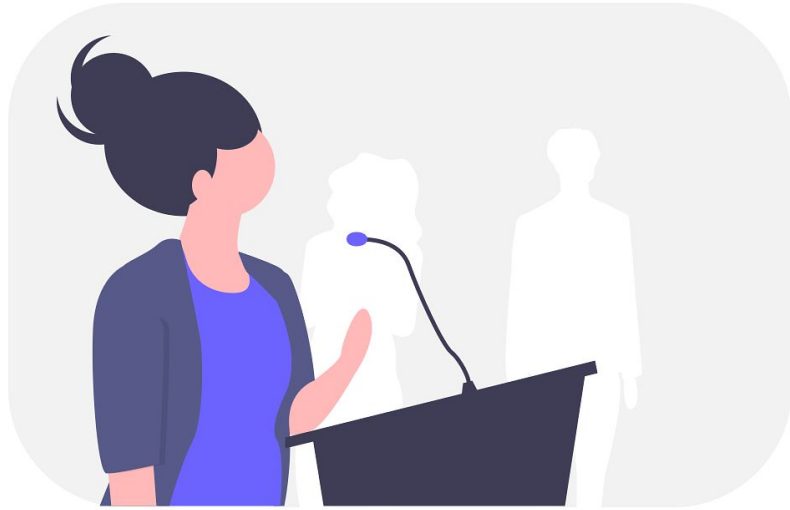

slidezing.com

You spend hours preparing and rehearsing your content for a big conference

When the big moment comes, you want to engage your audience and stand out slideZing enables unique interactions with your audience

Your audience gets high quality images of the slides they want

Your audience can ask questions and send comments to you

Comments are stored on a website you can view during or after the presentation

All interactions are through your custom phone number:

- No app installs
- Works everywhere
- Easy to share
- No need to share your personal number
